Education

Bachelor of Fine Arts – Communication Design – College of Visual Arts, St. Paul MN.
May 2008

Employment

Design Contractor – Grasp Media Inc, Minneapolis MN

I acted as the graphic designer to establish Grasp Media as an active iPhone application developer. I worked on a team with four others to create the companies site and other assets along with the graphics needed for the iPhone application. I also contributed to decisions in the application's user experience in our collaborative environment.

October 2008 – Present

Creative Director – Luxury Media Group, Edina MN

With a distribution of 40,000 magazines through out the Twin-Cities I had to deliver every issue of "Twin Cities Luxury & Fashion" on a month-by-month basis with consideration to all details from the initial planning to the shipping of the final product. My responsibilities were to maintain the over all creative direction and to supply artwork to the design staff. I also helped with the design of each issue and approved the product before pre-press.

February 2007 – September 2008

Design Contractor – Midwest Reliability Organization, Roseville MN

Midwest Reliability Organization recently became the authority of power standards for the Midwest regional power grid that includes Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, and parts of Canada. The goal was to create a website that can handle a wide range of information for power related companies that includes standards and compliance.

December 2007 – January 2008

Design Contractor – Ampersand Partners, Edina MN

Ampersand Partners needed a web site update that was concerned with creating a typography hierarchy to handle relevant information and describe the company's process, goals, and mission as business marketing specialists. My number one priority was balancing my design effort with what they could afford.

March 2008 – April 2008

Design Intern – Colle + McVoy, Minneapolis, MN

At Colle + McVoy I was exposed to the many details of their creative process. I assisted in design and partial development for projects like yearbookyourself.com and takemefishing.org. I was able to participate in creative meetings, and assist the team in many different aspects to move projects along. The major project I worked on at Colle + McVoy was yearbookyourself.com which reached 1 million users within 3 weeks. The project received national press time on CBS' The Morning Show.
